WOULD CONNECT COUNTY SEATS

Governor Tener in Inaugural Address Favors Plan which would Connect Gettysburg with Other County Seats.

That Gettysburg will be connected with nearby county seats as a part of a system of state-wide road improvement was included in the plans for his administration outlined by Governor Tener in his inaugural address at Harrisburg today. The new executive states that his plan is so large and will require so much money that the state's indebtedness will have to be increased and consequently a constitutional amendment will have to be adopted before the general plan can be worked out. In discussing the matter in his address Governor Tener said:

Pennsylvania has been pre-eminent in many governmental activities, but in the consideration of highways the effort has not been commensurate with the need. Other states have recognized not only the desirability but the necessity of good roads, and have to the limit of their means endeavored to meet this need; in fact, though heavily in debt, they have added to their obligations for this purpose. Pennsylvania, practically out of debt, has done little to supply this want. The department with small operations has been able to make but little headway.

Time to Improve Roads.

With a total of 97,000 miles of public roads, but 700 miles have been improved by the state. The time has come when an active effort must be made. A general plan of statewide road improvement should be adopted and accomplished. To do this will require the expenditure of a large sum far beyond the ordinary revenues, and the necessary funds can be raised only by an addition to the state debt for that purpose. To effect this a constitutional amendment will be necessary, which could not be operative until after a ratifying election in 1913, but in the meantime a comprehensive scheme could be worked out, and all moneys available from current revenues can be used for construction as would from time to time be determined practically.

Though pressing the necessity for road improvement, I would before approving the expenditure of large sums of money, insist upon the adoption of a practicable working plan, which would deal fairly with all sections according to their respective needs.

My present thought is, as a beginning, that the state should construct at least one road between adjoining county seats, and to these other roads count, from time to time, be added until the general improvement would be consummated. Piecemeal and small disconnected construction, widely separated, should not be made except in case of pressing necessity.

In my opinion a reorganization of our highway department is necessary and recommend an organization more comprehensive in its administration, with power, with the approval of the board of public grounds and buildings, to consider and execute this general highway plan.

LIONS DON'T DRINK

York will have a den of the Fraternal Order of American Lions in the near future. Seventy-six names have been secured for the organization thus far, and as soon as 100 persons sign for membership a charter will be taken out and a local den established. The objects of the Lions are fraternal, social and beneficial, but a feature of the new order is the absence of the sideboard, which is prohibited by the laws of the organization.

RICHTER GETS JAIL SENTENCE

Four Months Given Erring Mail Carrier who Pleaded Guilty in United States Court. Goes to York Jail.

John E. Richter, of Bittinger's, a rural carrier from the post office at Hanover, pleaded guilty to the charge of robbing the mails at a hearing Monday in the United States court for the Middle district of Pennsylvania at Williamsport and was sentenced to serve a term of four months in the York county jail.

Richter was arrested in York,

at the home of his wife's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Foller, where Mrs. Richter had fled in fear that her husband would take her life because she had betrayed him to the postal authorities.
The next day at the hearing he placed the responsibility for the crime upon drink. A warrant was later served upon him by Deputy United States Marshal J. W. Snyder, charging him with robbing the mails, and at a hearing before United States Commissioner John F. Kell he was held for the action of the federal court.

Richter was sentenced by Judge Holland who occupied the bench in the absence of Judge Archbald. Among the witnesses at the hearing were Postmaster S. S. Lewis Assistant Postmaster E. S. Hugenugher, Chief of Police Bush and Sergeant of Police Horn, of York.

SUED FOR OLD SHORTAGE

Alleging that M. H. Goehnaur, of Kraltown, was short $189.55 in his account after clerking a sale for him in February, 1909, O. D. Graver, of East Berlin, had him arrested on a charge of larceny by bailie. The prosecution had been delayed until this date, it is explained, because there had appeared to be a chance of settling the claim, but as a few more weeks delay would have outlawed the charge, it was decided to wait no longer.

FOUR CAPTAINS ATTEND BANQUET

Foot Ball Team Given Complimentary Banquet at Raymond's Cafe.
Supper and Speeches in Appreciation of Good Record.

The successful Gettysburg College foot ball team was given a banquet at Raymond's Cafe on Monday evening in honor and appreciation of their record of the past season. Three ex-captains and the present captain, Roy T.
Brumbaugh, were among those who enjoyed the feast.

The dining room had been decorated with numerous Gettysburg pennants and an exceptionally good supper was served. Coach Vail occupied the head of the table and all of the team were called upon for speeches. Ex-captains Weimer, Snyder and Aldinger were among those who responded. Black, whose game this year was one of the many strong points of the team, announced his intention to return to college next fall in spite of rumors to the contrary. It is also expected that all the other members of the team who do not graduate will be on Nixon Field again for the season of 1911.

The affair Monday evening was given as a compliment to the team by Mr. Raymond and was heartily appreciated by the gridiron warriors.

Their work will receive still further reward in several weeks when the Athletic Council will give them another banquet. The three victories over Bucknell, Dickinson and Franklin and Marshall are evidently lingering long in the memories of the followers of the successful 1910 eleven.

ADMIRAL BARRY.

He Retires From the Navy
Under a Cloud.

RETIRE ACCUSED ADMIRAL

Taft Approves Barry's Application to Leave Naval Service.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The application of Rear Admiral Barry for retirement has been approved by President Taft, and he has been trans-ferred to the retired list of the navy.

The navy department has received a telegram from Rear Admiral Thomas, who was appointed to succeed Admiral Barry, that he had assumed the command of the Pacific fleet. The navy department issued the order retiring Admiral Barry on Saturday, and advised him of that fact by telegram.

This action was taken before the publication of the allegations that officers of the flagship West Virginia contemplated charges against the admiral reflecting upon his moral character.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer telegraphed to the Pacific coast for a full report on the allegation that the retirement of Admiral Barry was caused by the demands for his resignation by officers of the flagship West Virginia. The navy department declined to say to whom the telegram asking for a report had been sent, but it is assumed that it was directed to Rear Admiral Thomas, the new commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet.

SAYS MRS. SCHENK OFFERED HER BRIBES

Nurse Detective Testifies at Poisoning Trial.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 17.—The developments in the trial of Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk on a charge of poisoning her husband, John O. Schenk, while bringing out no new sensations, were decidedly interesting.

Miss Eleanor Zoeckler, the nurse detective who was employed to watch Mrs. Schenk in an effort to catch her giving poison to her husband, resumed her testimony.

The chief features of Miss Zoeckler's testimony was that Mrs. Schenk tried to bribe her to give John O. Schenk a poison pill, offering her $1,000 for the job; that Mrs. Schenk said she would be the happiest woman in the world when her husband was dead; that the accused prayed to God every night that her husband would die before morning, and that it pleased her immensely when she received telephone calls each morning that her husband was worse. These things Miss Zoeckler reiterated time and again while she was under cross-examination.

Prosecutor Handlan says that he will introduce testimony to prove where, when and how Mrs. Schenk secured the arsenic she is accused of putting in drinking water served to her husband.

Is your cow stable a modern one, with a lot of windows in it, or is it an old fashioned one, with a sliding board for a window? If the latter, arrange some way to get some windows and fit into it. The health of your animals demands it.

Besides, the light makes it so much more agreeable for the owner or attendant to work in, and there is no question but that the cows will do much better and be better off every way in a well lighted stable.

BUILDINGS SWEEP AWAY

Ice Pack Rushes Over Huge Dam at McCall's Ferry and Leaves the Plant Unscathed.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 17.—With first floors flooded and houses battered by huge ice cakes tossed about by the steadily rising water, Safe Harbor was saved from complete submersion by the opportune breaking of the Susquehanna gorge below the village.

Water stood four feet in the bar-room of Albert Onney's Railroad house, and several stables and other buildings were swept away.

The temporary relief afforded Safe Harbor, however, was short lived. Ice, rushing out of the Conestoga, jammed in the mouth of that stream, allowing only a small portion of the water to escape and backing up the creek.

There is still a flood of about twenty-five feet in the village, with the water slowly rising.

Ice Goes Over Dam.

The gorges at York Furnace and Pequea broke almost simultaneously. The suddenly released water and ice crashed down through the thick sheet of unbroken ice that coated the river for five miles, from York Furnace to the dam below McCall's Ferry.

In twenty minutes the water at the dam had risen four feet, and for the first time ice ran over its breast. This was the test of the strength of the massive structure of concrete, which engineering experts were anxiously awaiting.

They were overjoyed to find their prediction that the dam would stand the strain and carry the ice away without damage to the big power house fully realized.

Railroad Is Undermined.

The flood water played hob about Washingtonboro. The south track of the Pennsylvania low grade line was flooded and undermined to such an extent that it was put out of service. Water ran over the tracks of the Columbia & Port Deposit road. Islands immediately in front of Washingtonboro were inundated to a depth of four or five feet, and some valuable crops of tobacco were ruined.

At Long Level, on the York county side, the homes of James Ramsey and John Detwiler were flooded. Both were abandoned.

At Columbia and Washingtonboro the river is falling, the water that has been flooding down all day from far up the river evidently having found channels through the gorge at Turkey Hill.

Water backed up the Pequea creek as far as Colemanville, and put the York Furnace trolley line out of service.

COST OF CAPITOL CASES

Pennsylvania Paid $164,964 to Prosecute Grafters.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—Attorney General M. Hampton Todd issued a statement showing that the total cost to the commonwealth of the capitol cases had been $164,964.68.

This sum includes all of the costs for both criminal and civil cases resulting from the inquiry made by the legislative investigation into the frauds connected with the furnishing and equipping of the new state capitol.

These suits were instituted shortly after the legislative commission made its report to Governor Stuart in the summer of 1907, and include the actions in equity which were settled last week by payment to the commonwealth of $1,300,000 in cash and the surrender of warrants valued at $158,000.

The counsel fees paid amounted to $98,750, divided as follows:

James Scarlett, Danville, $55,500, for preparation and trial of both criminal and civil cases.
David T. Watson, Pittsburg, $25,000.
John E. Fox, Harrisburg, $17,500.
O. B. Dickinson, Chester, $500.
Scott, Upson & Newcomb, New York, $250.

The balance of $66,214.68 was expended for expert witnesses; witnesses brought from a distance; detective service and other expenses incidental to the trials.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

MIND BLANK SIX YEARS

Wealthy Real Estate Operator Wandered About the Country. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Gaston Ketcham, fifty-two years old, a wealthy real estate operator of Washtenaw, Dutchess county, returned to Poughkeepsie after wandering about the country with his mind a blank for nearly six weeks.

Ketcham dropped out of sight while visiting relatives in Haverhill, Mass., on Dec. 5. It was while he was waiting to have a check cashed in a bank that he was recognized and detained. Ketcham is almost a physical wreck, but his mind seems to be entirely clear again, and he says he is ready to take up business where he left off.

SHEEHAN FOR U. S. SENATOR

Nominated by New York Democrats at Caucus to Succeed Dewey.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 17.—The Democratic joint caucus of senators and assemblymen unanimously selected William F. Sheehan to be the Democratic candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Chauncey M. Depew on March 4 next.

By the unanimous action of the caucus 91 Democratic votes are pledged to Mr. Sheehan, or 24 less than the Democratic strength in the legislature.

SENATOR DUPONT TO BE RE-ELECTED

Republicans of Delaware Legislature Endorse Him.

Dover, Del., Jan. 17.—Henry A. Dupont, United States senator from Delaware, will be re-elected to succeed himself at the joint session of the legislature one week from today.

The choice of the two houses was indicated at the caucus of the Republican members. Senator Dupont, the millionaire powder manufacturer, received 28 votes; Governor Pennell, 1, while one member was absent and one blank ballot was cast.

Mr. Dupont received one more vote than a bare majority. There were thirty members in the caucus, which is one short of the full number on joint ballot, Representative Hurdle being absent on account of illness.

Had not one ballot bearing the name "C. Dupont," presumably meant for T. Coleman Dupont, former chairman of the state Republican central committee and a cousin of Senator Dupont, been cast for Senator Dupont, he would have received only the necessary vote, 27.

PLEADS TO FREE WIFE

Pittsburg Man Says She Did Not Put Poison in His Lunch.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—G. M. Strobacher, the grain elevator superintendent, who was mysteriously poisoned by a strychnine sandwich in his lunch on Jan. 7, was dismissed from the hospital.

Strobacher immediately went before a magistrate and pleaded for the release of his wife, who is held by the police, pending an investigation into the cause of the poisoning. Mrs. Strobacher is also in the hospital, recovering from a nervous collapse following her arrest.

Strobacher told the magistrate that the police are mistaken in their suspicions of his wife, and that he does not believe she put the poison in his lunch. As soon as a chemical analysis of the lunch is made Mrs. Strobacher will be arraigned for a hearing.

GOVERNOR TENER TAKES OFFICE

Big Crowd Attends Inauguration at Harrisburg.

8000 MARCHED IN PARADE

Political Clubs, State Police, a Detachment of the National Guard and Other Organizations Reviewed by Governor Tener.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—Before one of the largest crowds that ever attended a similar event, John K. Tener, of Charleroi, was sworn in today as governor of Pennsylvania, to succeed Edwin S. Stuart, of Philadelphia.

The inauguration of Lieutenant Governor John M. Reynolds took place in the senate chamber after the inauguration of Governor Tener.

The inauguration of Governor Tener took place on a large stand erected in front of the capitol building. On the stand were Mr. Tener's family, his brother and sister, Governor Stuart, Senators Penrose and Oliver and many others high in the councils of the state.

The governor-elect and party was escorted to the capitol by the Governor's Troop, and promptly at noon the ceremonies began. The invocation was by Bishop J. H. Darlington, of the Episcopal diocese of Harrisburg. H. M. Kephart, chief clerk of the senate, then read the certificate of election of the governor-elect. With these formalities over, D. Newlin Fell, chief justice of the Pennsylvania supreme court, stepped forward and, facing Mr. Tener, administered the oath of office. After the applause subsided Governor Tener delivered his inaugural address.

The inaugural procession, under the command of Major General C. B. Dougherty, commanding the National Guard, with Colonel Lewis E. Bettler as chief of staff, moved immediately after the ceremony in three divisions. The first was the military, followed by the civic organizations and then firemen from Harrisburg and York.

The parade was reviewed from the front of the executive mansion by the inauguration party, a stand capable of holding 1000 people having been erected there.

Major General Dougherty's aides were as follows: Brigadier General Willis J. Hulings, Oil City; Brigadier General Charles M. Clement, Sunbury; Brigadier General William G. Price, Jr., Philadelphia; Brigadier General James B. Coryell, Philadelphia; Colonel Albert J. Logan, Pittsburg; Colonel C. T. O'Neill, Allentown; Colonel F. W. Stillwell, Scranton; Colonel Asher Miner, Wilkes-Barre; Colonel Richard Coulter, Greensburg; Colonel George C. Rickards, Oil City; Colonel Gibbons Gray Cornwell, West Chester; Colonel William R. Follmer, Lewisburg; Lieutenant Colonel William Sharpe, Wilkes-Barre; Lieutenant Colonel Frank M. Vandling, Scranton; Major Fred R. Drake, Easton; Major David J. Davis, Scranton; Major Blaine Aiken, Washington; Major Frederick M. Ott, Harrisburg; and Major John C. Grooms, Philadelphia.

Senator Penrose marched in the inaugural parade at the head of the big marching club from Philadelphia that bears his name. Mayor John E. Reyburn, of Philadelphia, marched at the head of a similar club named for him. The two clubs had at least 1000 men each in line.

The parade included about 8000 men and was made up of state police, a detachment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, Indians from the Carlisle school and political clubs from various parts of the state.

This evening the new governor will hold a reception to the public at the executive mansion. In the receiving line will be Governor and Mrs. John K. Tener, Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. John M. Reynolds, Secretary of Internal Affairs Henry Houck, State Treasurer and Mrs. C. F. Wright, President Pro Tem. of the Senate and Mrs. John F. Cox, Secretary and Mrs. Walter H. Gaither, Chairman of the Legislative Inaugural Committee and Mrs. John E. Fox.

Ex-Governor Stuart left for Philadelphia immediately after the inaugural ceremonies.

STRANGE CASE OF DUAL PERSONALITY

Wealthy W. J. Virginian Arrested For Begging.

Baltimore, Jan. 17.—"If there is such a thing as a dual personality in every man, it is shown in this case," remarked Justice Grannan in the police court while deliberating as to what he would do in the case of E. Marshall Johnson, technically charged with begging on the public street.

Johnson is state's attorney for Grant county, W. Va., and also counsel for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. He is editor and owner of the Grant County Press, a weekly publication.

He is thirty-five years old, of refined appearance and dresses well. Sunday night he was arrested while begging in the streets.

Johnson is state's attorney for Grant county, W. Va., and also counsel for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. He is editor and owner of the Grant County Press, a weekly publication.

He is thirty-five years old, of refined appearance and dresses well. Sunday night he was arrested while begging in the streets.

"Why do you beg on the street and seem to lose your real self?" asked the justice.

"I don't know," replied the West Virginian. "At times something comes over me and I cannot resist it. Then I go out on the street and beg money. I came here and registered at a hotel. I did not intend to beg on the street, but this other self came up; I forgot everything that I am an officer of the law, a state's attorney for my county, that court opens in two weeks at Petersburg, W. Va., the capital of Grant county. The other self simply got the best of me."

"I am not going to let you go," said the justice, "because this other self may get the best of you again. I am not going to send you to prison, either, but I will send for some of your friends and place you in their charge."

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Mrs. Edith Melber, who has confessed the killing of her five-year-old boy by carbolic acid near the Schenectady turnpike, was indicted by the grand jury for murder in the first degree.

Mrs. Melber was arraigned before Supreme Court Justice Cochrane and in a weak voice pleaded not guilty. She said she had no money to engage counsel, and the judge assigned ex-District Attorney John T. Cook and John H. Dugan to defend her.

CALLS PROHIBITION BIGOTRY

Alabama Governor In Inaugural Declares For Labor Option.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 17.—In his inaugural address to the legislature Governor Emmett O'Neal declared Alabama's prohibition laws to be an invasion of individual rights and constitutional guarantees, and branded the attempt to insert a prohibition clause in the state constitution as an offspring of intolerance and bigotry.

He proclaimed prohibition a failure and recommended a general local option law.

Dug Up $40 in Pennies.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 17.—Guided to a field east of the suburb of Irvington by Ben Deery, twenty-three years old, the police dug up $40 in pennies taken from the state bank of New Palestine on Dec. 29, when the bank was robbed of $6400. RULES FIGHT TIES UP HOUSE

Slim Chance to Enact Regular Business.

CANNON MEETS DEFEAT

Speaker's Attempt to Kill Reform Rule Voted Down by Democrats and Insurgent Republicans—May Mean Extra Session.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The outcome of another row on the rules in the house of representatives indicates the probability of an extra session of congress. At least this is the view of the leaders of the body from Speaker Cannon down.

Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the house appropriations committee, was more communicative on the subject than those associated with him in the leadership of the house organization. While he would not permit himself to be quoted, he admitted that as a result of the performance of the house there was slim chance of the regular business of that body being concluded by the 4th of March.

What the house did amounts to the establishment of a precedent that no general business may be considered, no matter what a majority of the body shall desire, on the first and third Mondays of the month. These days must be given over to the consideration of bills called up for passage by unanimous consent, of bills postponed for passage under suspension of the rules, and of motions for the discharge of committees from the consideration of measures on which they have taken no action.

But as one man may destroy the operation of the unanimous consent rule, and as Representative Mann, of Illinois, has rendered it impossible to consider bills under suspension of the rules, it is apparent that for a considerable proportion of the legislative total the house is entirely tied up.

Cannon Overruled.

This condition was brought about when the house, by a vote of 155 to 124, refused to lay on the table an appeal taken by Representative Fitzgerald, Democrat, of New York, from a decision of Speaker Cannon.

Mr. Fitzgerald appealed from a decision which would have permitted the setting aside of the new rule, adopted in the fight last spring when Speaker Cannon was shorn of much of his power, giving power to take bills away from committee. Twenty-three insurgents voted with the Democrats.

The rules fight developed over an attempt to set aside the new rule, which gives preference on alternate Mondays to meet the discharge measures from committees.

Speaker Cannon had his decision typewritten and ready to read as soon as the point of order was made. The Democrats and insurgents opposed vigorously the attempt to abrogate the new rule.

Earlier in the session one lone congressman, Mr. Hardwick, of Georgia, aggrieved because the speaker ruled him out of order when he attempted to have printed in the Congressional Record a memorial from thousands of farmers in his district, threw the house into a state of consternation by objecting to scores of private bills which other members were anxious to have passed.

Mr. Hardwick would not recede from his hostile attitude, and the result is that it will be two weeks before it will be possible to get the bills up again under the "unanimous" consent procedure.

CHAINED HIS GRANDSON

Court Reprimands Man For Fastening Boy to Tree.

West Chester, Pa., Jan. 17.—Joseph Ross, an aged man of Landenberg, was before Judge Hemphill on the charge of abusing his eleven-year-old grandson, Charles Mitchell, by chaining him to a tree.

Several witnesses testified that they found the boy chained to a tree when the weather was freezing cold. The chain was fastened around the boy's feet and locked so that he could not escape.

The court was shocked and gave Ross a severe reprimand.

Vote to Pay Southern Pacific.

Washington, Jan. 17.—By a strict party vote of 7 to 5 the house committee on claims voted to recommend the payment of $773,000 to the Southern Pacific railroad for its work in repairing the break in the Colorado river three years ago when the Imperial valley in California was overflowed.

Killed Himself After Arrest.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 17.—Carl J. Cutting, a dealer in Oriental goods and well known in club circles, who was arrested last Friday night on a charge of defrauding the government by the undervaluation of imports, committed suicide at his home in this city.

Uniform Signal System.

Washington, Jan. 17.—A bill requiring that the railroads of the country shall adopt a uniform system of signals was introduced in the senate by Senator Jones, of Washington.

SILLO AND ENSILAGE.

Indian corn ensilage is the best feed. Kiln corn or railo maize makes good ensilage. These feeds preserved in the silo in as near as possible their good state will produce a world of milk.

The acre of land producing three tons of silage, which is not an unusually large crop, will feed one cow 120 days or ten cows twelve days.

A stave silo, built at a cost of $150 and containing 100 tons, will feed ten cows four months on a ration very near equal that of June Grass.

The cow on silage ration should be well housed, but not necessarily in an expensive barn. The silo is the cheapest farm building the farmer can erect.

A stave silo accommodating 100 tons of silage can be erected at a less cost per ton than can a bayonet for storing 100 tons of hay.

Silage is a very satisfactory feed for horses, mules, cows and calves.

Silage can be kept two or three years and possibly longer in good condition, with the result that in years of plenty the farmer may take care of the short years.

POLAND CHINA HOGS.

Popular Breed That Originated in the Corn Belt.

Of all breeds of hogs Poland Chinas are the most numerous, at least in the United States and particularly so in the corn belt, writes a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker. Having originated in southwestern Ohio, they are well suited to the needs of the corn belt farmers, and it is not surprising that Poland China hogs are to be found on almost every farm. These hogs are fine of bone, neat of frame, mature early and fatten easily, yet they are not typic adapted for show principally, but are a lusty lot, being good rustlers, good feeders and of good constitution.

A seven-months-old pig weighing 200 pounds is easily produced under usual farm conditions and at a good profit, too, as pigs of such weights bring the highest market prices.

During 1910 hogs of any weight have sold at good prices, but fat pigs weighing from 175 to 200 pounds sold for a good premium over heavier ones, the reason being that hams and sides from

The Poland China breed of hogs is considered the ideal of the hard type of hog. The individuals are broad on the back, compact, low and dress a high per cent of marketable meat. The back is broader and shorter than that of the Berkshire, but the latter has the advantage of the Poland China in length of side. The illustration shows a Poland China brood sow in pasture condition.

such pigs, being small, are more easily and quickly cured. Such a policy on the part of the packers avoided having to hold high priced meat long with a risk of a slump in price. With prospect of more pigs coming on farmers were quite willing to sell lightweight hogs at the good prices they commanded, and the Poland China and other small types of hogs peculiar to the corn belt made such a policy possible and profitable. A fault of the Poland Chinas is their small litters. However, statistics show that Poland china litters average but two less than Duroc-Jersey litters, the numbers being about seven and nine respectively. The small races of hogs are as free from disease as are the larger ones, and so called immunity from cholera is a myth unless that immunity has been secured by the proper administration of cholera serum. The breed or type is of no importance so far as disease is concerned.

TENER'S AIM IS TO SERVE PUBLIC

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—Governor Tener took the oath of office here today. In his inaugural address he urged the strict enforcement of laws already enacted and recommended the passage of new legislation. "To serve the people will ever be my aim and duty well done will be my highest reward," he said in conclusion. His address follows:

Believing that I have a correct sense of the obligation which is imposed by the oath just taken, I approach the duties of the office to which you have elected me, conscious of their importance and of my responsibility in their lawful execution.

I appreciate the magnitude of our state and of the many activities of our people, which have secured for us so high a place among the American commonwealths, and it should be the aim of all officials to contribute to their utmost the maintenance of this high position. There should ever be the desire to make the most of our advantages to the end that the people may receive the best results therefrom.

We are living in a progressive age; progressive in everything that tends to the uplift of man and to a higher and better civilization, and in this forward march public officials must keep pace, not only to be vigilant to see that the laws are faithfully executed, but to give to the people the best that is in them; to see that these laws should bear equally upon all and that the ultimate result be the welfare and happiness of our people.

At the time of my acceptance of the nomination, as well as on other occasions, I promised, if elected, not only a strict enforcement of present laws, but to do all in my power to secure additional legislation which would further tend to better the general conditions throughout the commonwealth.

Realizes Much is Expected.

Having in mind the high sense of duty which has actuated my predecessor and his successful administration of this office, I appreciate that much will be expected of me. These expectations I will strive to realize, and to that end I will exact that all of the state officials shall do their full duty, and that to me and them, the dominating influences shall be an efficient administration of state affairs.

The most important subject, and one which should be our constant consideration, is the public health. Great progress has been made by our state in recent years in this service, and it is universally acknowledged that the results accomplished fully justify the appropriations so expended.

I will favor the giving to the department of health the necessary money to enable it to continue its good work, and to keep abreast of modern methods for the protection of life and health; believing that the funds of the commonwealth cannot be, within, of course, proper limitations, more beneficially used.

Education of Utmost Importance.

Next to the public health is public education. This is of the utmost importance, not only for the benefit of

WORRY AND HURRY

Are the two greatest foes to indigestion—and very few people reach the age of forty without falling a victim to indigestion in some form or other.

Indigestion is a serious menace to health and is the cause of headaches, sleeplessness, flatulency, gas and distress in the stomach, despondency, nervousness, bad breath and impure blood.

In such cases Vinol has a marked beneficial result. It seems to go directly to the seat of trouble, strengthens and tones up the tired, weakened nerves of the stomach, enabling one to digest with ease the very foods that once caused distress. A case has just come to our attention in Barre, Vt. Mr. Samuel Wheeler suffered with a stomach trouble for years and had taken all kinds of medicines without relief, and at last found a cure in Vinol. He says Vinol was worth five dollars a bottle to him. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

If you suffer from any form of stomach trouble, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. People's Drug Store, C. Wm. Beales, proprietor, Gettysburg, Pa.

Nervous Dyspepsia

If You Have it, Read This Letter. Mi-o-na is Guaranteed by People's Drug Store.

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. I took his treatment four weeks, but did not feel any better. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, I got a box of MI-O-NA. I took them that afternoon and the next day and haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. Feel well now, and sleep good."—Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 2, Avoca, N. Y.

MI-O-NA is surely the best prescription for indigestion ever written.

It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn and all stomach misery in five minutes.

It is guaranteed to permanently cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or any disease of the stomach, or money back.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are sold by People's Drug Store and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box. Trial samples free on request from Booth's MI-O-NA, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sore and Pimply Faces

The best method to keep the face from becoming sore and pimply is to bathe with warm water, rubbing well, and then applying Manoline while the skin is still damp, rub vigorously until the face becomes pink. This treatment will also clear the face if sore and pimply. If you don't have Manoline and haven't used it, you have missed the best method of keeping the skin healthy. 25c in tin tubes of 300 drops.

If Women

Only Knew

What a heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Gettysburg Homes.
Hard to do housework with an aching back.
Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys—'Twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys. Gettysburg people endorse this:

Mrs. Charles Gilbert, 128 W. Middle Street, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "My health was poor as a result of disordered kidneys, I had but little appetite could not sleep well and was subject to backaches and headaches. Often I had dizzy spells and chills and I always felt worse when I caught cold. One of my relatives finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at the People's Drug Store. They proved to be all that was claimed for them, giving me prompt and permanent relief. I advise the use of this remedy in all cases of kidney complaint."
